Announcements

SBCC Guides Program

Margaret Prothero is seeking volunteers (staff and faculty) for this program, which matches a Guide with participating students to offer support during their first year. So far, 130 students are being served in the program. Contact Margaret Prothero

(mhprothero@pipeline.sbcc.edu) or Sara Volle (svolle@pipeline.sbcc.edu)

if you or someone in your department would like to volunteer to be a Guide.

SLO Coordinating Committee

Gwyer Schuyler is seeking two other people from Student Services to serve on the SLO Coordinating Committee. Members from Student Services would share out what is happening on the instructional side with SLOs, and eventually help shape SAOs. Contact Gwyer Schuyler if you or someone in your department are interested in serving on this committee.

(schuyler@sbcc.edu).

Active Shooter/Safety Training

Departments are encouraged to reach out to Erik Fricke, Director, Campus Safety and Emergency Response, for active shooter and safety trainings. Each department is unique (e.g. physical space and layout etc.), so make arrangements to have Erik come to your department for personalized trainings. (fricke@sbcc.edu) or 805-730-2464.

Ocelot has Arrived!

Vice President Paloma Arnold is seeking five to seven departments to onboard the chatbot component of this AI communication platform. Contact Paloma Arnold if you are interested (arnoldp@sbcc.edu).

¡Raíces: First Year and Beyond!

If you know of a first year, returning, transferring, or continuing student at SBCC who desires a college experience that reinforces their goals, leadership skills, and/or cultural pride, ¡Raíces: First Year and Beyond! may be for them! Students can go to sbcc.edu/raices and click on “Join Today,” to fill out the interest form. The form can be found on each of the Raíces web pages. Coordinator: Sergio Lagunas. Questions? Email (raices@sbcc.edu).
